Simon de Pury

AUCTIONEER

Simon de Pury is one of the art world's leading figures, renowned for his deep and long-standing knowledge of the global marketplace and his legendary performance at the auction podium. He generates excitement in the saleroom with a display of great wit and can conduct sales in four languages—English, French, German and Italian.

Born in Basel in 1951, Simon de Pury studied at The Academy of Fine Arts in Tokyo in the 1970s with an eye towards becoming a fine artist. After working at the Bern auctioneers, Kornfeld & Klipstein and subsequently studying at Sotheby's Institute, Simon de Pury joined Sotheby's working London, Geneva and Monte Carlo. From 1979 through 1986, Simon de Pury curated the celebrated Thyssen-Bornemisza collection in Lugano. In 1986, Simon de Pury returned to Sotheby's first as Chairman of Sotheby's Switzerland and then as Chairman of Sotheby's Europe and the company's Principal Auctioneer. Throughout the 1990s, he conducted all of Sotheby's major sales in Europe which included the Thurn und Taxis sale in Geneva and Regensburg, the Margrave sales in Baden-Baden and from 1994, all the major Impressionist sales in New York.

In 1997, Simon de Pury co-founded with Daniella Luxembourg, de Pury & Luxembourg Art, a Geneva-based art advisory firm. In 2001, this firm merged with Phillips Auctioneers to become Phillips, de Pury and Luxembourg which specialized in the sale of Impressionist, Modern and Contemporary art, Jewelry, Photography, and 20th and 21st Century Decorative Arts.

In 2003, Simon de Pury moved the business from East 57th street to the Meatpacking District in Chelsea, which was fast-becoming the gallery district in Manhattan and decided to focus the business solely on the sale of works from the 20th and 21st Centuries. In 2004, Simon de Pury became the majority shareholder of Phillips de Pury & Company and continued to grow the business in pioneering new ways. He introduced selling exhibitions of artists' works in the areas of contemporary art, design and photography and the Saturday at Phillips sale, which features high-quality works of photography, art, design and jewelry for new collectors. Phillips de Pury & Company has grown in a short time to be the market leader in the sale of contemporary art and offers an exciting auction and gallery experience for the collector.

Phillips de Pury & Company continues to grow with the opening of its European headquarters in London in autumn 2007.

LIVE AUCTION LE BAISER DU DRAGON BY CARTIER

Le Baiser du Dragon pendant 18-carat white gold, brilliants, rubies

In China, silk knots recall the traditional belief that an old man living on the moon kept a register of births and marriages and would draw a red line linking the names of children who would marry when they grew up. The Chinese spirit joins the pure graphics of the Art Deco style so dear to Cartier. Just like making a wish, the good luck thread is to be tied to the pendant setting off the openwork and structured motif, playfully contrasting the black silk thread, paved white gold and rubies.

Le Baiser de Dragon earrings 18-carat white gold, brilliants, rubies, onyx

Hanging from the dragons set with diamonds, fine chains interspersed with rubies and onyx punctuate these earrings. Colorful and mobile, they sketch an airy structure, as a counterpoint to the dragons. Both modern and inspired by the Chinese tradition, these earrings delicately play on their contrast, lending themselves to infinite desires.

LIVE AUCTION CHATEAUX LAFITE ROTHSCHILD 1988

Two Cases of Château Lafite Rothschild Pauillac 1988

The quality of Château Lafite Rothschild needs no introduction. As early as 1815, Abraham Lawton had already designated it as a leader: "I ranked it as being the most elegant and delicate, with the finest body of the three (leading wines)" he qualified in 1855. As to Château Lafite traits shared by all vintage years, it was an enlightened amateur who summed it up best by saying "...whatever the case, all the Château Lafite wines have an almond and violet aroma!" The 1988 is a beautiful claret, powerfully structured and tannic. Robert Parker gave it a 94 and says, "This deeply-colored wine exhibits the tell-tale Lafite bouquet of cedar, subtle herbs, dried pit fruits, minerals, and cassis. Extremely concentrated, with brilliantly focused flavors and huge tannins, impressively endowed Lafite-Rothschild may well turn out to be the wine of the vintage!"
